Guest Lecture

A Guest lecture was conducted on “Applications of Differential Equations” for B. Tech I year students from 1.30 pm to 4.00 pm on 08-11-2016 in Seminar Hall, Block-2 by an eminent speaker “Dr. M. A. S. Srinivas, Professor & Head, Department of Mathematics, JNTUH, Hyderabad.”

The session started with the introduction of Differential Equations and the speaker explained wide range of applications of differential equations in various engineering fields. The session was very interactive and all the queries were addressed. The feedback forms were collected from the students. 200 students attended the session.

Alfamatica-2k17

Alfamatica-2k17 was conducted on 24th March, 2017 from 10.00 am to 3.00 pm. It was a day-long parallel event conducted with lots of excitement and enthusiasm in two different seminar halls for Mathematica-2k17 and Alfabetica-2k17. The registrations for the event started at 10.00 am, 267 students registered for the event. The response for the event was overwhelming, winners of both the events were shortlisted and the program continued with the valedictory session.

The chief guest for the valedictory function was Mr. A. Raju, Project Director, DRDO, inspired the students with his speech. The chief guest assured that he will arrange permissions to our students for their project work.
